Things to do in Mulhouse

While looking for further information on what Mulhouse has to offer I came across this useful web page which has 24 items in it.

Personally, I would hope to see the number one attraction which is the amazing National French Automobile Museum. I think if Fred gets in there we'll never get him out! Never mind I'll be keeping you company.

The National Automobile Museum gets 3 stars in the Michelin Guide. so does the Musée français du Chemin de fer <http://www.citedutrain.com/> which is the French national rail museum.

And for people not inclined to transport, there is a local history museum, a fine arts museum, and a zoo.

The Reunion

A group of chaps, all aged 40, discussed where they should meet for a reunion lunch. Finally it was agreed that they would meet at Wetherspoons in Uxbridge because the waitresses were blond and wore mini-skirts.

Ten years later, at age 50, the friends once again discussed where they should meet for lunch. Finally it was agreed that they would meet at Wetherspoons in Uxbridge because the food and service were good and the beer selection was excellent.

Ten years later, at age 60, the friends again discussed where they should meet for lunch. Finally it was agreed that they would meet at Wetherspoons in Uxbridge because there was plenty of parking, they could dine in peace and quiet and it was good value for money.

Ten years later, at age 70, the friends discussed where they should meet for lunch. Finally it was agreed that they would meet at Wetherspoons in Uxbridge because the restaurant was wheelchair accessible and had a toilet for the disabled.

Ten years later, at age 80, the friends discussed where they should meet for lunch. Finally it was agreed that they would meet at Wetherspoons in Uxbridge because they had never been there before.
